NOTIFICATION OF INTENT TO VACATE
The first requirement for terminating your occupancy is completing the ‘Notice of Intent to Vacate’ form. Failure to vacate on the date indicated will result in a $20 per diem charge and assessment of daily rent. You will also be held responsible for all costs associated with a delayed checkout which can include costs of the future tenant (i.e., extended storage, rental truck fees, and hotel costs). Refer to the clause “Termination” as stated in your Housing Agreement.

Extensions and exceptions to your vacate date must be approved by the Assignments and Billing or Occupancy Coordinator of Apartment Life.

VACATING PROCEDURES TO FOLLOW
Please read this brochure completely before you move. Use it as a guide and checklist to assist you in avoiding cleaning charges. If you have any questions concerning the procedures outlined here, contact the office manager, manager, or assistant manager.

INSPECTION OF APARTMENTS
We want to assist you in leaving your apartment in good condition. Your own inspection of your apartment is a step toward achieving those objectives. The walls, floors, doors, and paint condition in your apartment will be inspected by both the environmental services and maintenance staff. These inspections will be made within a few days after you have submitted your Vacate Notice. This statement and the “Notice of Intent to Vacate,” serve as your official notice of our intention to enter your apartment. Inspections will be performed by Operations Management staff between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

The final apartment inspection will take place the next business day after your vacate date. During inspection, the staff compares the apartment to the condition described on your Damage Inventory sheet that you completed when you moved in. You will be charged for cleaning and damage to the facility in excess of normal wear and tear. If charges are necessary, you will be assessed the current hourly rate for environmental services and/or maintenance time, plus the cost of maintenance supplies.

You may schedule an appointment with the manager or assistant manager for an inspection of your apartment before you vacate. The office manager will inform you about the scheduling process. This inspection will not guarantee that charges will not be assessed. The final inspection after you leave/move out will allow a thorough evaluation.

Notification of any cleaning or damage charge will be itemized and billed to your CSU account within 60 days of your actual vacate date. We will send to you a copy of any charges to the current email or mailing address on file with the University (see below on how to update your address).
You can review your statement from the Office of Accounts Receivable reflecting all charges and credits through RAMweb.

ITEMS OF IMPORTANCE AS YOU COMPLETE YOUR CHECKOUT

- Rent must be paid in full. (Rent will be prorated if you vacate during a month as long as proper notice is given.)

CLEANING WITH YOUR ROOMMATE

The lease requires that roommates share in maintaining a clean apartment. To avoid charges, all occupants should thoroughly clean the living/dining room, kitchen, hallway, and bathroom as defined in this brochure. The vacant bedroom is to be cleaned by the vacating resident before the environmental services staff arrives. To ensure a clean apartment, an inspection will be made by the staff after the roommate vacates. Each incoming resident must receive a clean apartment and bedroom, and all the bedroom furniture must be intact. If charges are assessed for the common areas, all roommates are billed equally. If cleaning is needed in the bedroom, the person vacating will be charged the full amount.

If the remaining roommate wants to exchange bedrooms, he/she must see the Assignments and Billing or Occupancy Coordinator at the main office in 208 Palmer Center to make arrangements. Approval must take place before the environmental services staff enters to clean the apartment. Environmental Services will only clean the bedroom of the new, incoming resident.
